

Hello boys and girls, my name is Trooper.

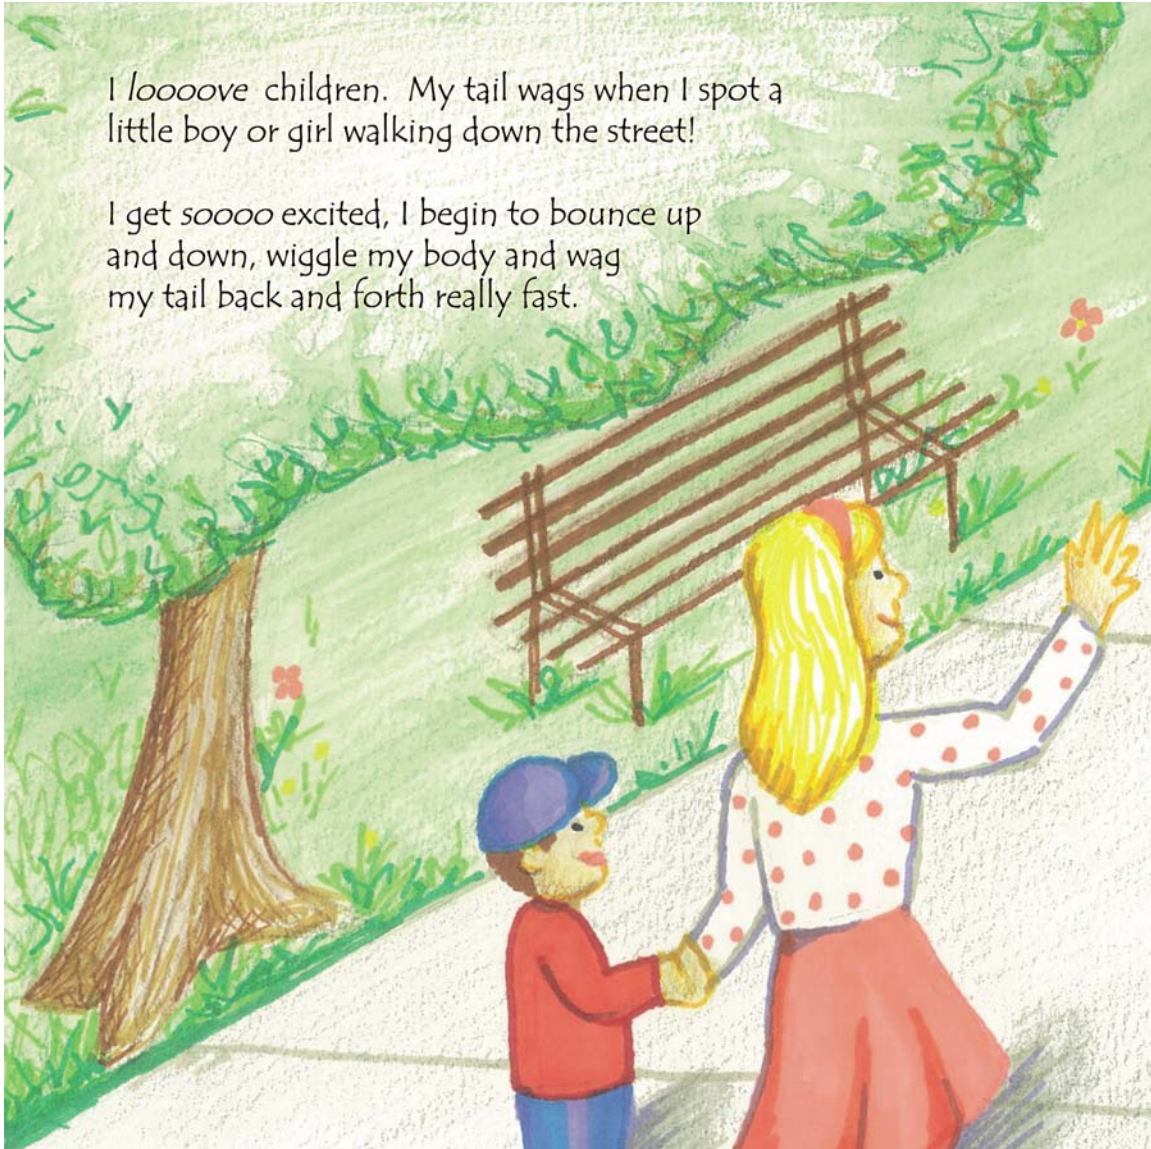

I am a tri-color Shetland sheepdog — I am a Sheltie dog!

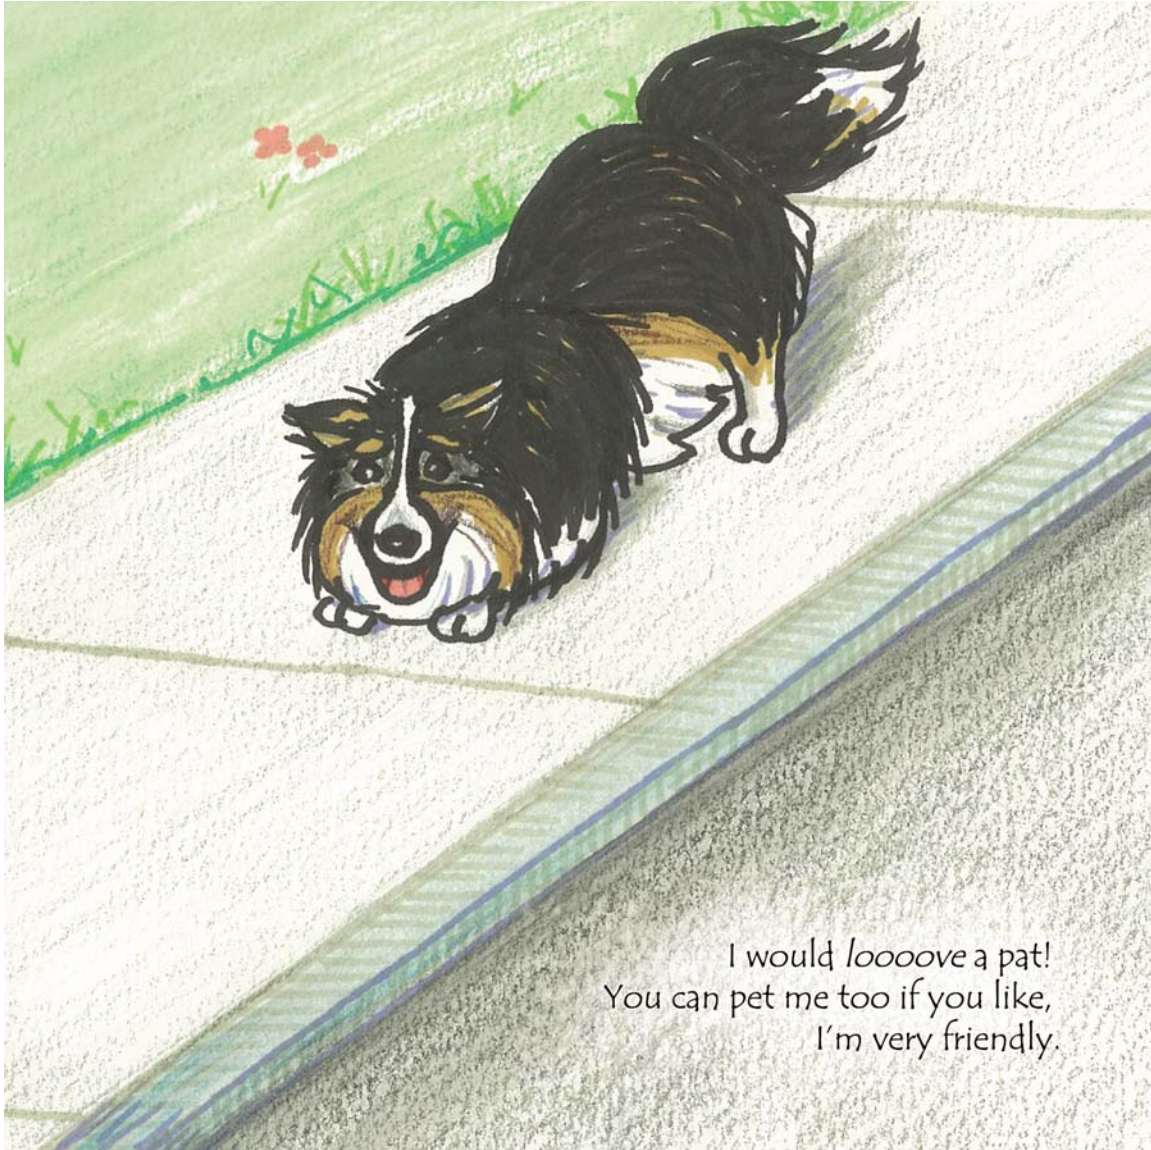

My colors are black, brown and white.

I loooove children. My tail wags when I spot a little boy or girl walking down the street!

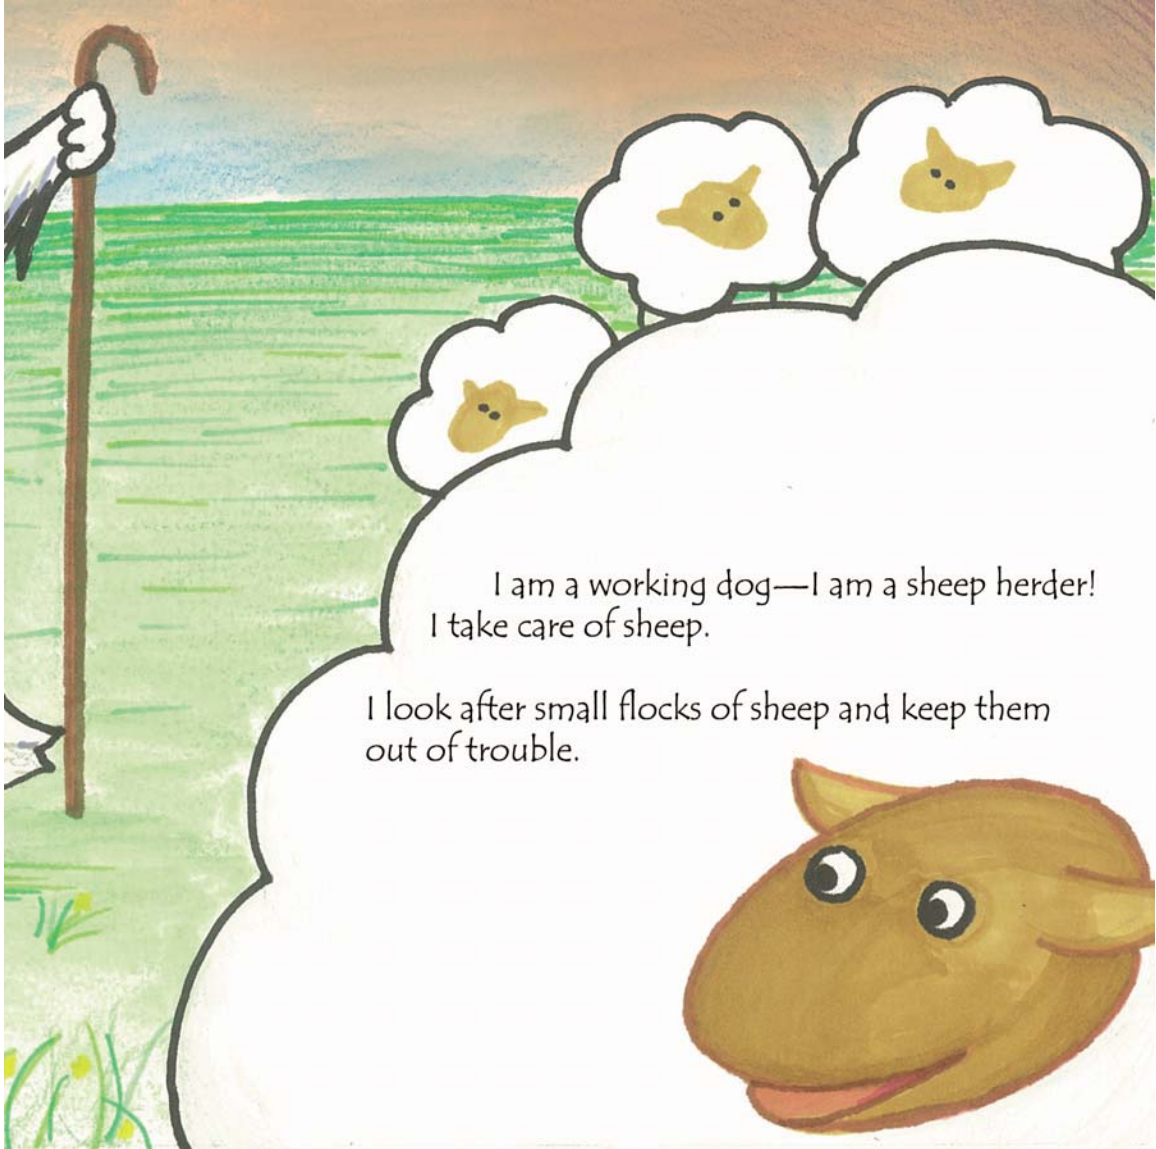

I get soooo excited, I begin to bounce up and down, wiggle my body and wag my tail back and forth really fast.

I would loooove a pat!
You can pet me too if you like,
I'm very friendly.

I am a working dog—I am a sheep herder!
I take care of sheep.

I look after small flocks of sheep and keep them out of trouble.

Boy, exercising makes me feel good.

I have to keep in shape so I can do my job well.

What about you, do you have a daily job like me?
